

CRUISE OF 8 DAYS / 7 NIGHTS - REF. 8NL_PP

Cruise on the Nile: The Land of the Pharaohs (port-to-port cruise)

EGYPT

The cradle of all civilizations'ancient Egypt'has fascinated humankind forever. Since the dawn of time, explorers, diplomats, writers, and painters have used the fertile banks of the Nile as inspiration for their work. Even today, we still seek the answers to the mysteries found within the pharaohs' tombs. Over two thousand years of history are waiting for you on a cruise that promises exciting, spectacular, and unforgettable discoveries. Majestic temples, tombs, pyramids, and lively villages dot the Nile Valley landscapes from Luxor to Aswan. Wind down from your everyday grind and step way back in time on a cruise through Upper Egypt.

*These cruises and tours are not recommended for persons with reduced mobility. There are no elevators on the ship, and many tours and visits are done on foot. The ship is not a part of the CroisiEurope fleet. (1) The Egyptian government can decide to close the roads to the Abu Simbel site at any time. Departure for the Abu Simbel excursion takes place very early in the morning. You must reserve this excursion before you leave for your cruise. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION : SHIP - The captain is the sole authority entitled to modify the ship's itinerary for safety and navigation reasons. - The ship holds a 5-anchor classification, awarded in accordance with the local standards and practices in force at the destination. - There is no heating on board the boats. - The ship's restaurant serves all meals in a single sitting for all passengers. Meals are offered as a buffet featuring largely international dishes (fried food, steamed vegetables, meats in sauce or grilled meats) with a few touches of local inspiration. Some dinners will be served plated. As the boat does not belong to the CroisiEurope fleet, the table setting and cuisine are not comparable to those standards. - The number of docking spaces on the Nile is limited, and boats may be moored side by side. EXCURSIONS - The itinerary, stopovers, or visits may be modified by the shipowner or our local representatives if necessary. - Excursions and visits may be adjusted, reversed, or replaced due to technical requirements, local events, or decisions by the authorities, as some sites may occasionally be closed. In such cases, alternatives will be offered to preserve the sightseeing program. - Excursions are conducted by a English-speaking Egyptologist guide and take place alternately in air-conditioned coaches or small local boats, with audio guides provided for greater comfort during visits. To fully enjoy the sites, the program includes a sustained pace with early departures. - Frequent traffic congestion in Luxor and Cairo, due to heavy traffic or religious events, may disrupt the schedule of certain excursions. - Some excursions may be sold directly on board by the ship's crew. As CroisiEurope has chosen not to include them in its official program, it declines all responsibility regarding pricing or the quality of the services provided locally. - When visiting religious sites, it is customary to cover shoulders, head, and knees. Alcohol can be harmful to your health. Please drink in moderation.

Our price does not include drinks on special menus, drinks taken during excursions or transfers - transfers to/from departure/arrival points - Egyptian visa - cancellation and baggage insurance - optional excursions.

Useful information

PRECAUTIONS

Vaccines are not mandatory for this trip. It is nevertheless advisable to be up to date with the following vaccinations: tetanus, polio, hepatitis A and B, diphtheria and typhoid fever. The use of mosquito repellent is highly recommended.

CURRENCY EXCHANGE

The official currency in Egypt is the Egyptian pound (symbolized as E£).
For the current exchange rates, please consult websites such as www.xe.com or www.onada.com/currency/converter.

There are ample bank machines available, and they accept credit or debit cards to withdraw cash. We recommend not using credit or debit cards in the bazaars.

WEATHER

The climates vary from region to region. Cairo and its surroundings are considered semi-arid, while the south is a desert climate.

Spring is brief in Egypt, and summer arrives quickly between March and May. Temperatures can change swiftly between 68° and 95° F (20° and 35° C) over a full day.

From the end of September to the end of November, temperatures vary between 77° and 95° F (25° to 35° C) from the north to the south of the country, with the sun still shining brightly.

In the winter months'from December to the end of February' we recommend a warm coat for Cairo, although Luxor and Aswan usually remain balmy.

TIME DIFFERENCE:

You can consult www.worldtimezone.com to see the time difference between your home and your destination.

MEALS:

The restaurant offers meals in a single sitting for all passengers. Meals are provided in the form of a buffet, except for 2 dinners served à la carte, in addition to the gala evening.

FORMALITIES

For French, Swiss, and Belgian nationals: Passport that is valid for 6 months after your date of return, with at least three side-by-side pages free of any markings and mandatory Egyptian visa.

Egyptian visa information: You must apply for your Egyptian e-visa before you arrive in the country. You can do this yourself directly through the government website: https://visa2egypt.gov.eg/eVisa/

For other nationalities: Please consult the competent authorities (consulate/embassy) before your trip.
