Cagliari

Type: Classic

You will discover the sun-drenched capital of Sardinia, whose golden rooftops and cascading terraces seem to watch over the sea since time immemorial. You will explore the historic districts of the upper town: Castello, a medieval fortress perched on its rocky outcrop, from which you can take in at a glance the Gulf of Cagliari, the pink lagoons inhabited by flamingos, and the rolling hills of the hinterland. In the shaded streets of the Stampace district and across the elegant squares of Marina, every façade, every gateway, and every church tells a fragment of the eventful history of this city, which has been successively Phoenician, Roman, Pisan, Aragonese, and Savoyard.
