Guided tour of Malaga and the Picasso Museum

Type: Classic

Located along the Costa del Sol, under the watchful eye of the Castillo de Gibralfaro, sits the vibrant city of Malaga. Malaga is much more than a seaside resort as it is home to some fantastic museums, including one dedicated to its native son, Pablo Picasso. We'll take a stroll through the historic center to see some of the main sites, including the Alcazaba fortress and the Roman theater. After, we'll visit the cathedral before heading to the Picasso Museum, devoted to the influential, 20th-century artist.
