VISIT OF MORET-LOING-ET-ORVANNE AND THE CHATEAU ROSA BONHEUR

Visit of Moret-Loing-et-Orvanne and the Château Rosa Bonheur

Duration: 3h30 · Type: Classic

Departure by coach from Saint-Mammès towards Moret-Loing-et-Orvanne, a charming village on the banks of the Seine.

Steeped in history, this medieval gem will transport you through the centuries. Surrounded by ancient ramparts and dominated by the majestic Porte de Bourgogne, the town bears witness to its strategic role in the Middle Ages. You will also be captivated by the Notre-Dame Church, a symbol of the town's religious significance. Once favored by the kings of France, Moret-Loing-et-Orvanne became an artistic hub in the 19th century, thanks in particular to the impressionist painter Alfred Sisley. His paintings immortalized the landscapes of the region, which you will admire firsthand as you stroll through the village.

As you wander its cobbled streets, you will discover timber-framed houses and picturesque watermills that add to its undeniable charm.

The visit will continue at the Château Rosa Bonheur, the former residence of the renowned animal painter. You will explore her well-preserved studio, where she created her masterpieces, and immerse yourself in her unique artistic world. Surrounded by peaceful gardens, this exceptional site offers a deep dive into the life and art of this pioneering 19th-century female artist.

Return to the boat by coach.

PLEASE NOTE

- The order of visits can change.
- Times are approximate.