Private Concert in a Historic Hall in Prague

Duration: 1h · Type: Classic

You will be invited to a concert in a sumptuous setting, where the musical heritage of the Czech Republic will be brought to light. A string quartet will take you on a journey through the timeless masterpieces of Mozart, Dvořák, and Smetana. You will sail on the mythical waters of the Vltava, the river made immortal by Smetana in his symphonic poem The Moldau. Prague played a crucial role in the career of Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, which is all the more remarkable considering that it was not yet the epicenter of European classical music. Yet, it was in this city that he found a passionate and loyal audience, who cheered him on during the premieres of his most famous operas. The association between Mozart and Prague, though not obvious, reveals the profound and unexpected influence this city had on him. Dvořák, for his part, drew inspiration from Czech traditions, creating iconic works like his Slavonic Dances. Return to the boat.
