VISIT OF EL PUERTO DE SANTA MARIA AND WINE TASTING

Visit of El Puerto de Santa Maria and wine tasting

Duration: 3h · Type: Classic

Discover El Puerto de Santa María, located in the heart of the Costa de la Luz along the Atlantic coast. Accompanied by your guide, stroll through a charming town renowned for its whitewashed houses and rich maritime heritage. The city experienced its golden age after its reconquest by Alfonso X and, over the following centuries, became the departure point for numerous maritime expeditions.
Admire the Natural Park of the Bay of Cádiz, which provides a stunning backdrop to the town's most emblematic landmarks. El Puerto de Santa María is also known as the "City of One Hundred Palaces" thanks to the remarkable concentration of aristocratic residences and palaces built between the 16th and 18th centuries. The city is equally famous for its close connection to sherry wine production, an essential part of its cultural identity.
Your visit continues with the discovery of San Marcos Castle, one of the most notable monuments in the town. This 12th-century fortress was built on the site of a former mosque, and its keep houses a Christian chapel. Combining Almohad and Gothic architectural elements, the castle reflects centuries of cultural coexistence and has remained remarkably well preserved.
This historic site is home not only to architectural treasures but also to the Caballero winery, where the famous Jerez wines are produced. This unique setting offers the perfect combination of heritage and winemaking tradition. You will discover the different stages of production, from fermentation to ageing in oak barrels, and learn the secrets behind these renowned Andalusian wines.
The visit concludes with a wine tasting, providing an ideal opportunity to appreciate the richness and character of these exceptional local wines.

REMARK

- The order of the visits can change.
- Times are approximate.
- Alcohol can be harmful to your health. Please drink in moderation.