VISIT OF THE CHÂTEAU DU TAILLIS

Visit of the château du Taillis

Duration: 3h · Type: Classic

Depart by coach from Caudebec-en-Caux to discover the Château du Taillis, a true jewel of Italian Renaissance architecture in Normandy. Upon arrival, you will be welcomed by the passionate owner of the château, who will personally guide you through this exceptional visit. He will take you through the major stages of the estate's construction and reveal the fascinating secrets of the families who shaped its history, making Château du Taillis a unique place steeped in history and culture.

As the visit unfolds, you will be immersed in the elegance of the 18th century, an era of refinement and splendor. You will explore the château's grand salons, where each room is a living testimony to the art of living during the Age of Enlightenment. The decorations, period furniture, and works of art adorning the walls will transport you into an atmosphere of luxury and nobility. The château's emblematic rooms, carefully preserved, showcase the beauty and architecture of this period, offering you a glimpse into the aristocratic lifestyle of the time.
