Corsican vineyards and traditional craftsmanship

Duration: 3h · Type: Classic

Patrimonio, nestled at the foot of the first hills of Cap Corse, is one of Corsica’s most renowned wine-growing areas. This historic terroir, blessed with an exceptional microclimate, produces powerful red wines and elegant whites that reflect the island’s full richness.During your visit, you will discover the emblematic grape varieties and take part in a tasting – a perfect opportunity to appreciate the aromas and the expertise of local winemakers.The excursion continues at a traditional honey farm, where beekeeping follows time-honoured methods. You will have the opportunity to sample a variety of honeys, each infused with the scents of the Corsican maquis: from robust chestnut honey to the delicate floral sweetness of heather, as well as unique flavours reminiscent of the island’s wild herbs.Combining refined wines and fragrant honey, this visit offers a true sensory immersion into Corsica’s gastronomic and artisanal heritage, rich in flavours and traditions.
