Early morning arrival in Mannheim. Optional excursion: Heidelberg. Departure by coach to Heidelberg, the city that symbolizes German Romanticism. Meeting with the guides at Heidelberg Castle, where you will discover, in their company, the exterior of this magnificent pink sandstone castle, partially in ruins. Since the end of the 18th century, the castle ruins have inspired painters and poets who saw them as a symbol of the grandeur and decay of human achievements. Goethe, Hölderlin, Uhland and Eichendorff celebrated the castle landscape, while many painters chose it as their subject. You will also discover the geometric terraces of the Palatinate Garden, the “Hortus Palatinus”, once considered the “eighth wonder of the world”. You will then continue with your guides on a visit of the old town. You will admire the Church of the Holy Spirit (exterior), built between 1398 and 1441, burial place of the Prince-Electors. Return on board in Mannheim. Afternoon cruising towards Strasbourg. New Year’s Eve evening. Overnight cruising towards Strasbourg.
