CRUISE OF 8 DAYS / 7 NIGHTS - REF. SRG_PP

From Croatia to the Shores of Southern Italy: A Cruise Through Ancient Heritage, Living Traditions and the Italian Art of Living - Dalmatia, Puglia, Basilicata, Calabria and the Bay of Naples (port-to-port cruise)

MALTA - ITALY

Embark on an exceptional cruise through Southern Italy and the Adriatic shores, where ancient heritage, authentic villages and breathtaking seascapes come together in perfect harmony. From Split to the Italian coastline, the journey unfolds across a sun-drenched Mediterranean steeped in history and tradition. Puglia reveals its many treasures, from the whitewashed alleyways of Bari and its rich culinary heritage to the UNESCO-listed village of Alberobello, famed for its iconic trulli. In Lecce, the golden stone of its magnificent Baroque architecture enhances every façade, while the traditions of Salento are showcased through local tastings and regional flavours. Further south, Matera captivates visitors with its remarkable cave dwellings and rock-hewn churches carved into the cliffs. Reggio Calabria blends archaeological treasures with Mediterranean elegance along the legendary Lungomare Falcomatà waterfront. Finally, Naples and its region provide a magnificent finale, with prestigious museums, vibrant culinary traditions and spectacular volcanic landscapes. Each port of call unveils a rich mosaic of cultures, flavours and emotions at the heart of Magna Graecia. A cruise where history, the sea and the Italian art of living meet in perfect balance.
