CRUISE OF 8 DAYS / 7 NIGHTS - REF. SZW_FIDPP

Discover the Baltic¿s most beautiful landscapes on a port-to-port cruise. Between unspoilt nature and cities full of character. (port-to-port cruise)

GERMANY - POLAND

Embark on a unique cruise through the unspoilt landscapes of the western Baltic. Discover the historic Hanseatic towns of Stralsund, Greifswald and Szczecin, the iconic islands of Rügen and Usedom, and the vast lagoons bordering the Baltic Sea, in a region where nature and heritage blend harmoniously. As you cruise, sail across the Greifswalder Bodden, the Peenestrom and the spectacular Szczecin Lagoon, peaceful havens for exceptional wildlife. An original itinerary combining maritime traditions, brick architecture and panoramas of rare tranquillity.

HIGHLIGHTS

- In the heart of the Baltic lagoons: an exceptional cruise among islands, lagoons and unspoilt landscapes.
- The Szczecin Lagoon and the Peenestrom: remarkable waterways between land and sea, offering stunning views of the German coast.
- Greifswald, a city of art and the birthplace of Romantic painter Caspar David Friedrich
- Usedom Island, where nature meets seaside elegance
- Szczecin, a major port on the Oder with a rich historical heritage
- Stralsund, a UNESCO-listed Hanseatic town and a fine example of Brick Gothic architecture
